

Macmillan Academy

TEACHING SCHOOL

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

Macmillan Academy – Middlesbrough

Course fee: £100 + VAT

Target audience

Teachers who wish to advance through their leadership career. This course would be ideal for those who have been given their first leadership role.

This programme is aimed at either existing middle leaders or those who aspire to this role.

Aims

To introduce teachers to the challenges of school leadership and to stimulate a curiosity and excitement to face these challenges.

Objectives

By the end of the programme participants should have an understanding of the core skills required for school leadership:

- Modelling excellence in teaching and learning
- Relating to others
- Developing others
- Holding others to account

These objectives will be delivered through six modules:

- i) Organisational climate
- ii) What do leaders do?
- iii) Developing a strategy to build teacher quality
- iv) Leadership styles
- v) Giving feedback
- vi) Implementing strategy

The course is designed as an introduction to the National Professional Qualification for Middle Leadership, which we hope participants will aspire to in the future.

Programme

Day 1

Start: 9.00am

- Session 1 - Organisational climate
- Session 2 - What do leaders do?
- Session 3 - Building teacher quality through strategic thinking

Finish: 3.30pm

Day 2

Start: 9.00am

- Session 1 - Leadership styles
 - Coaching
 - Holding people to account appropriately
- Session 2 - Giving feedback to colleagues
- Session 3 - Implementing strategy

Finish: 3.30pm

Programme leaders:

Phil Latham – Principal, Macmillan Academy/CEO, Endeavour Academies
Joani Windham – Consultant (teaching and learning), Macmillan Academy

For further information please contact: Mrs Amy Tumelty (Teaching School Director) (TeachingSchool@macademy.org.uk)

Venue information:

Macmillan Academy, Stockton Road, Middlesbrough, TS5 4AG

Tel: 01642 800800

Email: office@macademy.org.uk

Website: www.macmillan-academy.org.uk